

HINDUSTAN TIMES, PUNE
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 2019

NICMAR'S INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE TACKLES CONSTRUCTION CHALLENGES

■ (from left) Poonam Chandok, L&T, and Biju Prabhakar, special secretary, Kerala at the Nicmar meet.

HT

PUNE: The National Institute of Construction Management and Research (Nicmar), Pune, held its fourth international conference on Construction, Real Estate, Infrastructure and Project Management (ICCRIP), on December 13-14 at their Pune campus. The inaugural function, held on December 13, 2019, was graced by chief guest Poonam Chandok, head, HR, Transportation Infrastructure IC, Larsen and Toubro,

Mumbai; and the guest of honour was Biju Prabhakar, special secretary in charge of the department of social justice, and women and child development, government of Kerala. ICCRIP 2019 created an exclusive opportunity for its participants to interact and deliberate over CRIP emerging trends, issues and practices. There were keynote addresses by eminent speakers, and paper presentations.

NICMAR conducts conference on construction and real estate sector

OUR BUREAU

Pune, December 16

Pune-based National Institute of Construction Management and Research (NICMAR) recently organised the fourth International Conference on Construction, Real Estate, Infrastructure and Project Management (ICCRIP).

Eminent academicians, researchers, scholars, industry practitioners, teachers and students of engineering and architecture from across the country participated in the event.

The conference served as a common platform for knowledge exchange for the participants in the presence of eminent industry professionals and veteran academicians.

The panel discussion facilitated deliberation between the experts and audience over the state of research in construction sector, in India compared to the world, technological and process innovation and skill development.